In the public service we work collectively to make a meaningful difference for New Zealanders now and in the future. We have an important role in supporting the Crown in its relationships with Māori under the Treaty of Waitangi. We support democratic government. We are unified by a spirit of service to our communities and guided by the core principles and values of the public service in our work.

Position purpose of the Investigating Lawyer

- Apply legal and investigation experience, technical knowledge, and skill to investigate and prosecute serious or complex financial crime.

What we do matters – Our purpose

The Serious Fraud Office (SFO) is a highly specialised government department whose purpose is to protect New Zealand's financial and economic wellbeing. We do this through our mission of disrupting and deterring serious and complex fraud through prevention, investigation, and prosecution.
